

Cancer screening, cervical screening support materials

The following materials have been developed to support access to cervical screening for women with a learning disability.

- Useful advice for making a best interest decision
- Suggestions that may help to increase a woman's understanding of cervical screening
- Sample easy read invitation letter
- Sample letter for parents and carers explaining importance of cervical screening